Dr Frankenstein's Laboratory

Inspired by the original 1931 Universal monster movie series, this striking exhibit features:

- Frankenstein Monster with animatronic head
- 8ft tall Creation Table
- Control Panel and Power Station
- Many Kenneth Strickfaden inspired props including Digital Disputer, Cosmic Ray Diffuser & Lightning Screen
- High-voltage traveling arc animation (Jacob's ladder) on video monitor
- Customizable video kiosk with bubble tube
- Strobe lights, Edison bulbs, green uplighting & sound effects

Frankenstein Monster in Pop Culture

After more than two centuries, the influence of author Mary Shelley's creation continues to resonate in the modern world.

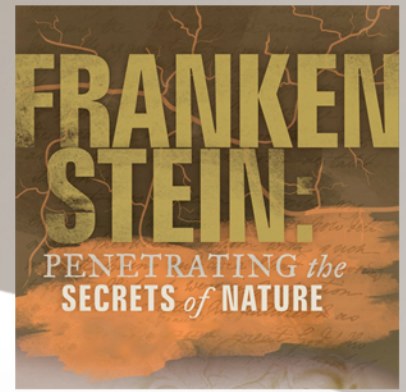

Explore examples of Monster-themed pop culture items on display such as toys, comics, advertising and memorabilia along with a comprehensive look at the history of Frankenstein as seen in television and the movies.

This original exhibit includes:

- 8 x 10ft lighted backdrop display
- 7ft tall Frankenstein Monster with animatronic head
- Display case with LED lighting
- Two monitors on stands playing media clips
- Green uplighting
- Stanchions with chains

Frankenstein: Penetrating the Secrets of Nature

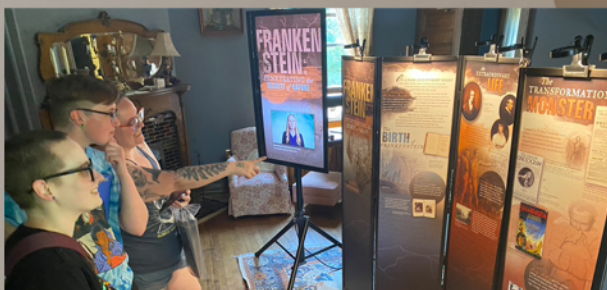

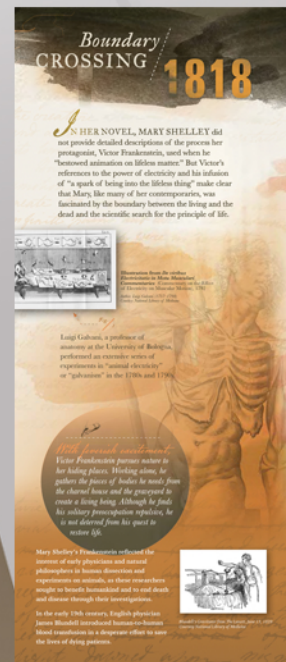

In 1816, Mary Shelley conceived a story that served as a metaphor for apprehensions about scientific advancement that still reverberates today.

With a showcase of graphic panels and video segments, this exhibit explores the power of this story to expose hidden fears of science and technology as human efforts to penetrate the secrets of nature continue.

The display was adapted from a touring exhibition produced by the National Library of Medicine, and consists of:

- 5.5 x 8ft lighted display with six graphic panels
- Large monitor on stand playing custom video loop

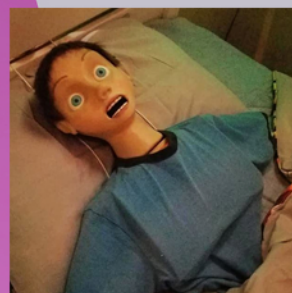

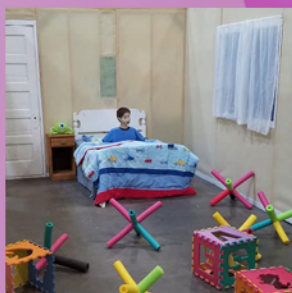

Monsters Inc Scare Floor

Experience a world inhabited by monsters working at a power company in Monstropolis where brave scarers are transported to the bedrooms of human children to harness the energy of their screams (and laughter).

Meet the entire gang from the Disney/Pixar animated franchise, and see the work station featuring Boo's Door along with a full-scale simulator room for practicing your scaring skills. The extensive exhibit includes:

- Giant monster costumes of Mike, Sulley, Boo, Randall, Duncan, Fungus and the Abominable Snow Man
- Scare Floor props feature lighted Boo's Door, Scream Canister and Terminal
- Scare Simulator with wall partitions, bed, "robotic" child and toys
- Monsters Inc logo projection
- Option for exhibit to be static or interactive

Transformers: Protectors of Humanity

Attention people of Earth! Our Transformers exhibit is "more than meets the eye" with huge versions of fan-favorite Autobots from the planet Cybertron standing guard against the evil forces of the Decepticons.

Humans should have their cameras armed and ready for an up-close encounter with these "robots in disguise". The impressive display features:

- Giant Transformers characters Optimus Prime, Star Scream and Grimlock standing 12ft tall
- Bumblebee replica vehicle (1972 Volkswagon Super Beetle) with flashing headlights & sound effects
- Video monitor with customizable loop
